

The Complete All-Inclusive Resort Guide

Chapter 12: The Ultimate Packing Guide

Packing well helps you spend less time worrying and more time enjoying your vacation. Most all-inclusive resorts have a relaxed atmosphere, but bringing the right clothing and essentials will help you feel prepared for everything from beach days to elegant dinners.

Travel Documents

- Passport (and visas if required)
- Flight confirmations
- Resort confirmation
- Travel insurance information

Clothing

- Swimsuits and cover-ups
- Casual daytime clothing
- Evening resort wear
- Light sweater or jacket
- Comfortable walking shoes and sandals

Essentials

- Sunscreen and lip balm
- Sunglasses and hat
- Prescription medications
- Reusable water bottle
- Phone charger and power bank

Beach Bag

- Beach towel if needed
- Waterproof phone pouch
- Book or e-reader
- Small amount of cash for tips or shopping

Don't Forget

Check your airline's baggage limits before packing. If you plan to enjoy excursions, pack clothing appropriate for hiking, snorkeling, or other activities. Leave a little extra room in your suitcase for souvenirs you may bring home.

Aimee's Resort Tip: Pack light whenever possible. Most travelers wear only a portion of what they bring, and a lighter suitcase makes your journey much easier.
