

The Complete All-Inclusive Resort Guide

Chapter 19: Your All-Inclusive Vacation Planning Timeline

Planning ahead helps you secure the best pricing, preferred room categories, and a stress-free travel experience. Use this timeline as a guide while preparing for your vacation.

When	What to Do
9–12 Months Before	Choose your destination, compare resorts, book your vacation, and purchase travel insurance.
6 Months Before	Verify passports, research excursions, and make payment plans if available.
90 Days Before	Reserve airport transfers, review dining options, and check for required travel documents.
30 Days Before	Confirm flights, begin packing, notify your bank of travel if needed, and review resort information.
1 Week Before	Complete online check-in (if applicable), print or download travel documents, and pack medications.
Travel Day	Arrive at the airport early, keep important documents accessible, and get ready to enjoy your vacation.

Stay Organized

Keep your confirmations, passport, travel insurance details, and flight information together in one place. Having everything organized before departure will make your travel day much smoother.

Aimee's Resort Tip: Don't wait until the last minute to ask questions. As your travel advisor, I'm here to help before, during, and after your vacation so you can travel with confidence.
