

Book #010 • Disembarkation Day Guide

Chapter 8

Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What time do I have to leave my stateroom?

Most cruise lines ask guests to vacate their staterooms early in the morning so the crew can prepare for the next sailing. Your cruise line will provide the exact time in advance.

Q: Can I carry my own luggage off the ship?

Yes. Most cruise lines offer a self-assist option for guests who can carry all of their own luggage safely. This often allows you to leave the ship earlier.

Q: What if I can't find my luggage?

Stay in the luggage claim area and notify terminal staff or your cruise line representative immediately. They can usually help locate missing luggage quickly.

Q: How early should I book my flight home?

Avoid scheduling flights too early in the day. Customs, luggage collection, traffic, and unexpected delays can affect your arrival at the airport.

Q: What documents should I keep with me?

Keep your passport or identification, medications, transportation details, wallet, phone, and other valuables in your carry-on until you've reached your destination.

Q: What's your best advice for disembarkation day?

Prepare the night before, stay organized, be patient, and allow extra time for your journey home. A calm approach makes the final day of your cruise much more enjoyable.

Aimee's Final Thought

Every cruise has to come to an end, but the memories last a lifetime. I hope this guide has helped you feel confident from the night before disembarkation until you arrive home safely. Thank you for allowing Agent4VIPs Travel to be part of your journey. I look forward to helping you plan your next adventure!