

Agent4VIPs Travel Resource Library

Book #010 • Disembarkation Day Guide

Welcome — Your Vacation Isn't Over Yet

Every great cruise eventually comes to an end, but with a little preparation, disembarkation day can be just as smooth as embarkation day. Knowing what to expect before leaving the ship helps reduce stress and lets you enjoy the final moments of your vacation.

This guide walks you through each step of the disembarkation process—from packing your luggage the night before to clearing customs, collecting your bags, and finding transportation home. You'll learn practical tips that can save time and help you avoid common mistakes.

Whether this is your first cruise or your fiftieth, my goal is to help you leave the ship feeling organized, confident, and ready for the journey home.

What You'll Learn

- Preparing the night before
- The disembarkation morning timeline
- Packing a smart carry-on
- Customs and immigration
- Luggage pickup
- Transportation options
- Insider tips to avoid common mistakes

Aimee's Welcome

Thank you for choosing the Agent4VIPs Travel Resource Library. I created these guides to help travelers enjoy every part of their vacation—from the excitement of embarkation to the journey home. I hope this guide makes your final cruise morning easy, organized, and stress-free. Thank you for allowing me to be part of your travel adventure, and I hope to help you plan your next one soon!