

THE VIP TRAVELER

Travel inspiration, expert advice & a little VIP treatment

JUST BACK FROM WONDER OF THE SEAS!
4 Nights • The Bahamas • One Incredible Ship

FROM AIMEE'S SUITCAST

I just returned from four incredible nights aboard Wonder of the Seas, and this trip was a great reminder that you don't need a week—or more—to have an amazing cruise vacation. Between beautiful Bahamas destinations, everything there is to experience aboard one of Royal Caribbean's largest ships, and some fantastic travel advisor training, I packed a LOT into four nights.

And yes—I was working! One of my favorite parts of being a travel advisor is experiencing the ships and destinations I recommend firsthand. It helps me match my clients with vacations that actually fit the way they want to travel.

VIP TIP OF THE MONTH

Don't automatically overlook a 3- or 4-night cruise. A short sailing can be a fantastic first cruise, long-weekend escape, couples getaway, or way to experience an amazing ship without committing to a full week.

Come Travel with me in 2027!

Jan '27 Resilient Lady ✨ W. Caribbean
Mar '27 Enchanted Princess ✨ E. Caribbean
Mar '27 Resilient Lady ✨ E. Caribbean
Apr '27 Brilliant Lady ✨ Mexico
Nov '27 Celebrity Reflections ✨ Bahamas
Dec '27 Allure of the Sea ✨ E. Caribbean

IS A SHORT CRUISE RIGHT FOR YOU?

Great for:

- First-time cruisers
- Long-weekend getaways
- Couples
- Girls' trips
- Families who can't take a full week
- Trying a new cruise line or ship

SHORT CRUISES — BIG VACATIONS

You don't need a full week to enjoy an incredible cruise vacation! A 3- or 4-night cruise can pack amazing dining, entertainment, beautiful destinations, and plenty of time to relax into just a few days.

Short cruises are perfect for a quick getaway, a first taste of cruising, or simply fitting a little more travel into a busy year.

VIP TIP: On a short cruise, the ship matters! Choose one with the dining, entertainment, activities, and atmosphere you'll actually want to experience.

WHAT I LEARNED ON WONDER

The ship really is the destination. Wonder of the Seas has so much to see and do that you could easily spend your entire vacation exploring the ship.

Two shows I consider absolute must-dos are the spectacular AquaTheater diving show and the ice-skating show. Don't miss either one!

AIMEE'S INSIDER TIP:

Didn't get show reservations before your cruise?

Don't panic! Additional reservation spots may open once you're onboard. And even if those are gone, check for a standby line at the venue. After guests with reservations are seated, available seats may be offered to those waiting.

Don't assume "sold out" means you're out of luck!

A SHORT CRUISE MAY BE ALL THE VACATION YOU NEED.

Let's find one that fits your schedule, budget & travel style.

